

Anka Molon

Director, Transition & Advisor Services

Anka is Director of Transition & Advisor Services. She brings with her over 18 years of superior customer service experience in the financial services industry in past key departmental roles in Compliance, Client Services, Operations and Corporate Accounting. Anka is responsible for instructional policy and procedure, from analysis, development, implementation and evaluation for a variety of key dealer learning and development solutions. She oversees the Advisor Services division and is responsible for managing the AGA insurance platform. Anka values and understands that each Advisor's practice is unique and she customizes their successful integration into Mandeville.